

Award Ceremony

Third year engineering students have attended a course via video conference as part of the Engineering Design module in collaboration with students from the University of Strathclyde, Scotland. These students were awarded with certificates by the current IED (UK) Chairman Professor Gordon Blount on completion of the course.

Prof. Blount presenting a certificate to one of the participating students

Prof. Blount with the members of the IED Malta Committee